Vocalist Connie Evingson is known for her eclectic repertoire. Tonight, she brings a blend of hot swing and gypsy jazz to the Kato for an evening of classic jazz from the 1920's-'40's. Dress up in your finest and sip some of our vintage cocktails for a grown up evening out. Don't forget your dancing shoes!

One of Minnesota's favorite vocalists, Connie consistently ranks in the Top Ten International Jazz releases on Amazon. Evingson has made guest appearances with Jazz at Lincoln Center, A Prairie Home Companion, the JazzMN Orchestra, the Minnesota Orchestra, Mankato Symphony, and many more. Charles Lazarus

A Night in the Tropics

Take the tiki lounge sounds of the 1960s, the rhythmic pulsing of bossa nova plus instrumental pyrotechnics, add mint, and shake. This is A Night in the Tropics. Featuring music inspired by the sultry melodies and evocative rhythms of Brazil, Cuba, Hawaii, and more; you'll hear danceable favorites from the Buena Vista Social Club, a tribute to Antonio Carlos Jobim, as well as Lazarus originals. Backed by a jazz combo, Lazarus will help you shake off your winter blues.

Charles Lazarus is a multi-faceted performer who has charted a unique course over his career including tenures in several of the best-known brass ensembles in the world, including Canadian Brass, Dallas Brass, Meridian Arts Ensemble, and the Minnesota Orchestra.
